STUDENT OF THE MONTH

Shellie McHenry Student of the Month

I work as a paralegal for Lind, Lawrence & Ottenhoff LLP in Windsor, CO. My hobbies? Well my kids and friends, exercising and Denver Broncos football. Thanks to your class I am now enjoying dry firing my pistol to practice keeping a steady trigger finger.

I own a Taurus 9 mm. I gained confidence that I could handle my firearm from your class. Before I took your class I was afraid of handguns. I was honestly apprehensive about taking the class but left with confidence and excitement to practice and get better.

I am applying for my concealed carry permit in November now that I feel I am better equipped to actually carry.

The lesson I got from your class regarding violent encounters is that I am going to be nervous, I am going to be shaking and running on adrenaline but with the training from your class, I have the focus to protect myself. You told us, and it sunk in, that I have a responsibility to come home to someone - for me it is my kids. I owe them that.

I would definitely recommend your class to others and I have. You are an excellent instructor. You stay on your students to do their best and don't accept less. You challenged me, opened my eyes and ears and I thank you for it.
